The Baptist Missionary Society held an interesting meeting with Mrs. W. D Cook Friday night with twelve members present. After the meeting all enjoyed a delightful social hour.

Mr. William Voorhees brought us an excellent sermon on Sunday morning and was dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Repass. His little daughter, Cindy, is quite ill of measles and we have missed her mother the past two Sundays. All are quite pleased to have this fine young man in our midst Sundays.

Miss Ruth Routon, of Lynchburg, was the delightful week end guest recently of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Morris and along with her hosts braved the bad weather and bad roads to call in a number of homes, bringing much sunshine in the deary weather.

The H.D.C. was represented at the Leader Training meeting held on the bad Tuesday of the 18th in Buckingham by Mrs. Henson Morris, Mrs. Roger Morris, Mrs. K. M. Beasley, Mrs. Roy Hill and Miss Myra Bracy.

We are sorry to report Mrs. T. H. Talbert fell in her home Thursday night breaking her hip. She has been in a serious condition at the University Hospital, but is now somewhat improved.

Mrs. E. R. Repass and Mrs. T. N. Snead called Sunday afternoon in the R. L. Morgan home, the T. H. Talbert home and R. T. Morris, Jr. home. We were happy to find Miss Bewlah both feeling and looking better.

Mrs. Mamie Cole remains quite feeble.

Public Invited To Hear Galilee Junior Choir

The general public is invited to attend the special service sponsored by the Junior Choir of the Galilee Baptist Church this Sunday evening at 3 p.m. The Rev. H. W. Pryor and his choir from the Mount Airy Baptist Church will be the special guest. Mrs. Dorothy Stevens is sponsor of the program.

A large crowd attended the twenty-first anniversary of the Men's Community of the Zion Baptist Church last Sunday evening at 3 p.m. The Rev. James Franklin served as master of ceremony. Special music was rendered by the Junior Choir of the Galilee Baptist Church. The Rev. R. Q. Lawing was the guest speaker. He spoke from the subject: "The Man of the Years" all present enjoyed the message. The following Men Clubs were represented and took an active part in the program: The Mount Shiloh, Galilee, First Nottoway and Amelia Baptist. The following ministers shared in the program Reverends J. J. Gambill, J. W. Paige, H. O. Flood and the Rev. H. J. Hendricks, pastor of the church. A cake with 21 candles was presented to the club by Mrs. Lizzie Braxton on behalf of wives of the members of the Men's Club. The president, Deacon James Franklin accepted the cake and gave words of praise and thanks. The total offering was $83.87.

Plans have been completed for the annual observance of the annual Ladies Day program of the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church, on the third Sunday evening in March at 3 p.m. The Mount Shiloh Baptist Church, pastor, choir and usher board will be the special guest. Greetings will be presented from several local ladies clubs. The public is invited to be present.

Impressive services were held at the Promise Land Baptist Church last Sunday morning at the 11:30 service. The pastor delivered a soul stirring sermon. One person was restored to the membership of the church.

The public is invited to attend the reunfur preaching services at the Galilee Baptist Church this Sunday morning at 11:30.

A special musical feast will be held at the Galilee Baptist Church on the third Sunday evening in March at 7:30. The program is being sponsored by the senior choir of the church. Several church choir will make up the program. The public is invited to attend.

An overflow crowd attended the funeral services for the late Deacon Mathew Brown of the Triumph Baptist Church at Darlington Heights, last Saturday evening at 1 p.m. The former pastor of the church, the Rev. H. R. G. Venable delivered the eulogy. Special music was rendered by the Senior Choir of the church. Resolutions were read from the deacon board, Sunday School, Church and also from the Sulphur Spring Church by Mrs. V. Venable. The Rev. C. H. Hill served as master of ceremony. The following ministers appeared on the program: Reverends R. Q Lawing, J. A. Carter, E. E. Berryman, W. L. Johns and the pastor of the church Rev. Hudson. Deacon Brown was described by the speaker as an example of a good deacon who worked for the unity of the church and the community. He was 85 years old. He died in Washington D. C. after an illness of several weeks. Burial was held in the family plot of the church cemetery. The arrangements were conducted by Bland-Reid Funeral Home of Farmville.

Rev. and Mrs. R. Q. Lawing, Timotheous and Juanita Lawing and Mrs. Anne Fleshman and a dinner guest of Mrs. Virginia Hancock and family.

Mr. Henry Harris of the Spout Spring community is undergoing treatment in the Lynchburg General Hospital.

A large crowd attended the regular meeting of the Carver Price P.T.A. last Monday evening. Reports were adopted concerning building of the bleechers on the athletic field. Plans for supporting the band were also adopted. Professor R. W. Williams and Professor E. T. Joan son presented current facts on their subject matter. Hot coffee and cookies were served by the entertainment committee at the close of the meeting.

Gladstone

Mr. and Mrs. James Sites attended the church school Workshop at the Methodist Assembly center in Blackstone.

Mrs. C. R. Brown and Mrs. E. P. Taylor spent Saturday in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian W. Banton, of Richmond, visited their parents this week end.

Miss Shirley Rothgeb, a student at Radford College, spent the week end with her mother, Mrs. J. B. Rothgeb.

Mrs. J. A. Hesson has received word of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry F. Martin, of Huntington, W. Va.

Much progress is now being made on the new addition to the Gladstone Post Office. This addition which is 14 by 18 feet will give more work room and lobby space. Bennett T. Mathews, of Appomattox, is the contractor.

J. E. Taylor is a patient in the C & O Hospital in Clifton Forge.
